"The Proposed Final Judgment will provide a prompt, certain and effective remedy for consumers...."

To Whom It May Concern:

I fully support the settlement that Microsoft has agreed to. Prompt, certain and effective remedy for consumers will only be the direct result of a final judgement to which Microsoft agrees or that is in Microsoft's favor. Please finish this lawsuit quickly so that Microsoft can go on satisfying their customers, like me, by producing top quality software. Microsoft should not have to waste money on frivolous lawsuits like these. Having thoroughly studied the economics of competitive advantage, it is clear that the case against Microsoft is based on shoddy economics at best. Stop prosecuting successful corporations and get tough on criminals.

Sincerely,

Aaron Alberg
